
WESTMINSTER - THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

Friday February 6th
FUNDRAISER FOR THE CHARTWELL CANCER TRUST

TERRY ALDERTON

Terry is a popular choice in the world of comedy, and regularly treads the boards all over the globe. Leading him to perform along side some of comedies biggest international stars. Recently working with Joan Rivers and Eddie Izzard who proclaimed him to be a 'very funny comic with a 'fantastic comedy mind', but someone who really ought to seek some sort of professional help.

Terry starred in SKY One's The Match 2004, a regular fire fighter in ITV1's London Burning in 2002, and also hosted in his own radio show, 'Terry's Turnstiles' on London's Capital Radio FM. Terry also hosted the National Lottery, 'Red Alert', with Lulu for the BBC Joy of Text(BBC1) Winning World Cup Tickets(ITV1) It Shouldn't Be On TV (Sky1) Bleeding Thumbs(BBC2) Game Stars(ITV1) . Other television appearances have included playing a yardie gangster in 'Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels' (Channel 4), Jeff Wade, a Huntington Disease sufferer in 'Holby City' (BBC) The Bill (ITV1) Waking the Dead(BBC1) , 'Ian Wright's Friday Night's All Wright' (ITV), 'Stupid Puns' (BBC2), The Stand UP Show (BBC1) The World Stands Up(paramount) World Comedy Tour Australia(paramount) Question of TV(BBC1) Shoot The Messenger(Paramount) , Saturday Live (ITV),Night Fever (Channel 5), two series of The Comedy Store (Channel 5) The Lads ITV Jack Dee's Sunday Service. Bring me the head of light entertainment (CH5). The Harry Hill Show (CH4). The Jonathan Ross Show. Edinburgh or Bust (CH4) Wogan BBC. Des & Mel (ITV). The Wright Stuff (CH5).The Royal Variety Performance (ITV). It Shouldn't happen to an Awards Presenter (ITV) The Brian Connelly Show. His film work has included, Black Ball (directed by Mel Smith) and Keeping Mum, The Jam, The Bird House, Oblivious.